

MPU preparation in English and Russian - ONLINE -

You have lost your drivers licence and do not know what to do?
We would love to help and support you with your questions and needs.

What is the German MPU?

The German MPU (Medizinisch – Psychologische – Untersuchung/ medical psychological examination) is a drivers' physical and psychological examination which needs to be passed before you are allowed to drive again.

What do we offer?

We can support you in order to pass the MPU and offer you a flexible online – preparation face to face with a psychologist who is well trained and specialised in traffic psychology subjects. Our VIB (Verkehrspsychologische Intensivberatung/ intensive psychological training) program fits best for you. It is an individual training, just you and your psychologist in a private conversation.

It consists of 9 sessions, each lasts 50 minutes
