

TÜV SÜD Middle East

Statement of Impartiality for Product Certification

TÜV SÜD Middle East LLC and its Product Certification team, auditors, technical experts, and subcontractors understand the importance of integrity, impartiality and potential conflicts of interests in carrying out its product certification processes for products that comply with the requirements of regulated applicable standards and schemes, and will meet the requirements provided in the respective approved standards.

TÜV SÜD Middle East LLC's management has formed a Committee for Safeguarding Impartiality which comprises of external members, internal members, Technical Expert and a Chairperson.

TÜV SÜD Middle East LLC's Management will conduct annual potential risk assessment on impartiality and conflict of interest, and this will be reviewed by the Impartiality Safeguard committee, which is an independent committee.

Conflict of interest and objectivity is addressed in contractually binding agreements, so that all product certification service and activities are conducted in an impartial manner.

The TÜV SÜD ME L.L.C aims to inspire confidence in its product certification to its clients by being impartial, providing competent auditors, technical experts and subcontractors being responsive to complaints, providing access to the relevant information gathered, being open, fairness, transparency of processes, and maintaining confidentiality.

CEO: Mr. SALAH SAFAH

Date: 01/09/2017

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'S. Safah'.