INFORMATION ABOUT THE TRANSITION FOR INFORMATION SECURITY MANAGEMENT SYSTEM FROM ISO/IEC 27001:2013 TO ISO/IEC 27001:2022.

To our Most Valuable Customers:

This letter is a part of our ongoing commitment to keep you informed of changes that could affect your Information Security Management System certification (ISMS). These changes will affect you if you currently have or are working towards ISMS certification from TÜV SÜD South Asia.

As per the requirements of IAF MD 26:2023 and the policy of NABCB accreditation body, we must ensure that all Certified companies/ Clients are upgraded to new requirements of ISO/IEC 27001:2022 within the mandatory transition period of 36 months from the date of release of ISO/IEC 27001:2022 i.e., before 2025-10-31. This demands to have the transition plan of the certification body related to existing certificates and upgrade to new applicable standards for each certificate issued.

We kindly request you note the below –

- Existing certified clients of ISMS:
 - The existing contracts can be continued in the old standard if it is valid up-to or before 2025-10-31. Any contract/certificate valid beyond this period shall be conducted as per new ISO/IEC 27001:2022 standard.
 - If the transition is not completed within the transition period as mentioned above, the old certificate (based on ISO/IEC 27001:2013) shall be withdrawn and the NEW certification process (Stage1 & 2) shall be conducted as per ISO/IEC 27001:2022 standard.
- TÜV SÜD shall apply the changes to certified clients as per the new standard ISO/IEC 27001:2022:
 - 0.5MD's additional from regular audit time for the transition during recertification audit
 - 1.0MD's additional from regular audit time for the transition during surveillance audit or a special audit or Site/Scope Expansion.
- TÜV SÜD can carry out audit as per ISO/IEC 27001:2022 from 2023-03-01 onwards

Thank you for your attention and support in the transition.

We hereby request you to get in touch with our local branch and understand the process in detail
